Dear Mr. McGuigan:

It has come to the attention of my client, Citizens for Responsible Government (CRG), that you are falsely claiming to have "a captured image" from their website on your website "www.watchdogmilwaukee.com." You further claim that this image purports to reveal "Who's behind CRG." In fact, this image never appeared on my client's website nor has my client received any support or direction from the Republican Party of Wisconsin.

My client demands that you immediately remove the fraudulent image and publish a retraction on your website stating that:

1. The image was a forgery and not an image captured from the CRG website.
2. You have no evidence that CRG is supported or directed by the Republican Party of Wisconsin.

Additionally, the image you have placed on your website infringes on my client's copyrighted name and logo. As you neither asked for, nor received, permission to use these copyrighted works you have willfully infringed their rights under 17 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq. and could be liable for statutory damages as high as $150,000 as set forth in Section 504(c)(2) therein.

My client demands that you immediately cease the use and distribution of all infringing works derived from their copyrighted name and logo and that you desist from this or any other infringement of my client's rights in the future. Please let me hear from you no later than April 15, 2005.

Very truly yours,

Brian W. McGrath
